ATTENDANCE POLICY

Purpose: To recognize the value and preserve the integrity of the Emerge program experience.

Attendance:
- Class participants must commit to attend all scheduled retreats and class days (35 hours over 8 months).
- Attendance at the opening retreat, in full, is mandatory. A participant who is significantly late to the opening retreat may be considered absent and subject to elimination. If you are unable to attend the opening retreat for any reason, an alternate will be placed immediately. You cannot defer your participation to a future class year.
- Failure to attend retreats and class days without a valid reason shall be considered by the Executive Committee cause to be eliminated from the program. Leadership Austin staff must be notified each time you may be more than 30 minutes late or absent on a class day.

Absences:
- Class participants, with a valid reason, may be excused for up to four (4) total class hours of absence without any requirement that the missed time be made up.
- Class participants, with a valid reason, may be excused for more than four (4) total hours but not more than eight (8) if approved by the Executive Committee of the Leadership Austin Board of Directors. A plan for the make-up of such time shall be at the discretion and design of the Executive Committee.
- Class participants with absences in excess of eight (8) hours may be granted permission to graduate by a 2/3 vote of the Leadership Austin Board of Directors. The plan for the make-up of such time shall be at the discretion and design of the Executive Committee.

Definition and Determination:
- The term “a valid reason” is defined as a personal illness, a death in the family, or other extraordinary circumstances beyond the control of the individual.
- Determination of whether an absence is excused for a valid reason shall be at the discretion of the Executive Committee.
- An Emerge class member is invited to submit a written description of the circumstances leading to the accrual of absences in excess of eight (8) hours for consideration by the Executive Committee.

Notification and Documentation:
- The Attendance Policy is included in the notification of selection to the Emerge program, conveyed at the opening retreat and reviewed periodically throughout the program year.
- Upon acceptance of admission to the Emerge class, each participant shall acknowledge their commitment to attend all scheduled retreats and Emerge class days.
